

This is not a beautiful woven tapestry. It is not a painting. It is the most detailed image of a human cell to date, obtained by radiography, nuclear magnetic resonance and cryoelectron microscopy. They estimate that we have 30 trillion and they all must work in harmony to carry out the basic functions for humans to survive.

By the way when David wrote Psalms 139 it was thousands of year before today's microscopes

Psalms 139 (Personalized)

"God, You made all the delicate, inner parts of [redacted] body and knit me together in my mother's womb. Thank you for making me so wonderfully complex! Your workmanship is marvelous—how well I know it. You watched me as I was being formed in utter seclusion, as I was woven together in the dark of the womb. You saw me before I was born. Every day of my life was recorded in your book. Every moment was laid out before a single day had passed. How precious are your thoughts about [redacted]

O God. They cannot be numbered! I can't even count them; they outnumber the grains of sand!
You are ALWAYS with me!"

The Light of Jesus shining through our "mess" changes everything

THE "LIGHT" CHANGES EVERYTHING

John 8:12 (personalized)

"Jesus spoke to the people and said, "I am the light of the world. If you follow me, _____, you won't have to walk in darkness, because you will have the light that leads to life."
(Abundant Life!)

What does it mean to follow Jesus?

Please read Matthew 22:37-39

If we are honest, it is pretty hard to argue that creation happened without "intelligent design", or that a "big bang" was able to create a brain, heart and 30 trillion cells in each of us and no two humans are alike.

So if you establish that there must be a God that created you and the uncountable amounts of stars in the universe, it is hard to imagine that He would know us, let alone have good thoughts about us. And we read what Ps. 139 says about that. From the beginning of the Book, it establishes that our purpose is to know and love God, He is relational and that is why He made us. And if that wasn't already great news that His thoughts about us are precious and can't be counted...the best news is that His love and acceptance of us is unconditional. The Grace of Jesus is there for EVERYONE. Please read John 3:16 that you may know by heart but this time read it with your name
